

Policy Summary: Claim Review Rules

Claim Review

Claim review requires matching procedure, diagnosis, member eligibility, service date, and provider documentation.

A claim is eligible when the procedure is covered, authorization is present when required, and documentation supports medical necessity.

A claim requires manual review when required fields are missing or policy rules conflict.

A claim is not covered when the service is excluded by policy or member eligibility is inactive for the service date.